

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THE EVENTS OF A SUNSHINY SATURDAY.

Newsy Notes and Current Comment from all Parts of the City.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All persons who have paid in advance for the Times will have the entire sum rated at six cents per week to the carriers, and they will receive the paper for the full amount paid.

Committee on Grounds and Buildings.

This committee met in the City Engineer's office last night at 8 o'clock. Present: T. N. Kendler, chairman, and Messrs. Ammons, Crenshaw, Sneed, City Engineer W. E. Cutshaw, and C. P. E. Burgwyn, superintendent of construction. The contract for furnishing window and door-frames for the basement of the new City Hall was awarded to Whitehurst & Owen for $398.

The engineer's report, as follows, was submitted and adopted:

Total,	$732.10

A percentage of this will be charged to stone and other work.

W. E. CUTSHAW,
City Engineer.

ROBBERY.

Two Broad-Street Stores Entered.

The stores of R. Ferdinandini and A. K. Schaap were entered by thieves Friday night. Mr. Ferdinandini had about $6 in cash stolen, and Mr. Schaap lost some small articles.

Entrance was effected by climbing from the private alley that runs from Sixth street to Mr. Ferdinandini's, and climbing into the second-story window and thence into the store.

Policeman Joyner heard some noise, which caused him to examine the premises which was probably the cause of driving off the thieves.

The Day After the Fair.

At the Fair-Grounds yesterday everything was being rapidly removed, and by noon the buildings and grounds were a depleted look.

The fat oven stood in an open field and were free to all comers. The invitation to "step inside and have your picture taken in three minutes" was not extended. The various devices for obtaining the wealth of unsuspecting individuals had disappeared. The "fakir" wept for the crowd that was no more, the quack-medicine man quacked not, and the sound of the side-show organ, bass-drum and cymbals was not heard, like the harp that "once through Tara's halls," etc.

The Rosegnek Accident.

Mrs. Rosegnek and mother, who were painfully injured by the overturning of their wagon on Broad street Friday night, were reported much better yesterday.

Mr. T. N. Redford, who was also hurt in the same accident, is a Democratic supervisor of election in the Fourth precinct of Monroe Ward. He was, of course, unable to act as such at registration yesterday. His doctor thinking he will be able to serve by election-day, no appointment was made in his place. Happily, his injuries are much less severe than at first supposed, when it was thought his spine was injured.

Ambulance Call.

The ambulance was called out yesterday morning to Sutherland's stable, on Eleventh street between Broad and Marshall, to attend to a party who had felt some sick and was attempting to walk some distance, but found himself unable to do so. The call was entirely unnecessary. It seems that some little discretion might be exercised in the calling of the ambulance, and that it should not be made use of as a free vehicle for the conveyance of the sick.

Special Meeting of the Common Council.

The Common Council will meet to-day at 2:30 for the purpose of attending the funeral of Councilman J. R. Kelly, of Monroe Ward, in a body.

The Old Dominion Club.

The gallant Old Dominion Democratic Club, of Jefferson Ward, will have a meeting at its headquarters to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that every member will be present.

J. K. Strasburger, of J. K. Strasburger & Co., lessees of the Mozart Academy of Music, returned to Washington yesterday after a pleasant trip to the city.

That long-needed improvement, the opening of an alley from Eighth to Ninth, between Main and Franklin, is now nearly completed.

THE COMING EVENT.

Mr. Frederick Warde at the Theatre.

Mr. R. C. Hudson, manager for Mr. Frederick Warde, the tragedian, is in the city, and has received a welcome from many friends. Mr. Warde will be at the Richmond Theatre four nights and one matinee, beginning Wednesday, November 3d.

His Richmond repertoire will be as follows: Wednesday, "Virginius"; Thursday, "Julius Caesar" (Warde as Brutus); Friday, "Galba, the Gladiator" (the same that Salvini played); Saturday matinee, "Ingomar"; Saturday night, "Richard III." Mr. Warde brings his own scenery, and in his support are such distinguished artists as Miss Eugenia Blair, Miss Wilmot, Charles D. Herman, and L. F. Rand.

Miss Blair is a Richmond girl, being the daughter of the old Marshall favorite, Ella Wren. She will receive a hearty greeting here from her friends and those who remember her mother.

SALE OF THE VIRGINIA HOUSE.

Prospects of a Solid Improvement in a Noted Locality.

Mr. A. J. Ford, trustee, who recently purchased the St. Claire Hotel, has also purchased the building on Grace street, adjoining that property, and known as the Virginia House. This last property was owned by Bishop J. J. Keane, and was bought for $10,650. The purchase of these properties will in no wise interfere with the management of Ford's Hotel. That will be conducted as heretofore, on first-class principles, and will continue to be one of the leading hostleries in the South. It is the intention of Mr. Ford, however, in the course of time, to connect and improve the St. Claire and Virginia House, and to make them, as they should be, an ornament of the heart of the city, and one of its most attractive and historic spots.

A NOTED CHARACTER

Charged with Lunacy.

Last night a warrant was sworn out against Cornelius Holloway, charging him with lunacy. Holloway's mind has been impaired for some years. About four years ago he shot a man named Blackburn, on Broad street below Jail alley. He was acquitted. Some weeks ago he hired a horse and buggy and went to Petersburg, and was there arrested on the charge of stealing the same. He was acquitted on the ground of not being of sound mind. The commission of lunacy will meet to-morrow.

A Plea for Light.

Why is it that for several nights past there has been neither electric light nor gas on Main street after 1 o'clock? That part of the city was in total darkness and locomotion was both dangerous and disagreeable. Where is the Council Committee on Light, and why are the people kept in the dark? The moon does not rise until nearly morning, and it was said that it was the project of running the city light on the moonlight, whose schedule had been abandoned. Richmond is worse than Manchester in this respect. Reservoir street last night was bright, while Main street was left in dangerous darkness.

Resignation Accepted.

The Governor yesterday received by telegraph the resignation of F. B. Hutton, judge of the County Court of Washington county, who requested that the Governor designate his successor at once. The Governor accepted the resignation and designated Judge Richardson, of Smyth, to hold the Washington County Court. Judge Hutton resigned to accept the office of assistant district attorney in the United States Court. His salary as assistant district attorney will be $1,200 per annum and mileage.

At Uncle Sam's Headquarters.

The British schooner Arthur, loaded with flour, cleared yesterday for Brazil. The Norwegian bark Solgrau entered at the custom-house yesterday in ballast from Rio Grande do Sul to load flour.

The United States internal revenue collections for the week ending Friday, October 22, were as follows: Saturday, $5,926.24; Monday, $6,170.75; Tuesday, $3,375.07; Wednesday, $5,397.12; Thursday, $897.30; Friday, $8,021.34. Total, $29,787.72.

A Brilliant Meteor.

A meteor of great brilliancy was seen from the Soldiers' Home yesterday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock. It came from the north and travelled southwest in apparently nearly a horizontal line. After moving athwart the sky sixty or seventy degrees, and leaving a bright streak in its track that continued visible at least a minute, it exploded without any audible to the observers.

Escaped from Sing Sing.

This great play will be the attraction at the Mozart Academy of Music all next week, beginning with Tuesday matinee. The company is a strong one.

"A Wall-Street Bandit."

This great hit of A. C. Gunter will be produced at the Theatre all next week with its phenomenal cast, startling situations, and great scenes. This play is one of the latest and greatest New York successes.

The southwest corner of Fourth and Broad presents a changed appearance from that of a few months ago. The store formerly occupied by Williams & Ford has been extended to the alley. In the place of the wooden building which formerly stood a few doors above, two handsome iron-front stores are now in the course of erection, and bid fair to be finished shortly.

Mr. E. M. Castine, of the Mozart Academy, leaves this morning on a flying trip to Baltimore.

Mr. John W. Todd is the guest of his brother, Mr. William J. Todd, of No. 524 West Grace street.

Mrs. Joseph L. Seay, of Powhatan, and Miss Fannie Stevens, of Norfolk, are the guests of Mrs. Julius A. Robson, of No. 617 North Seventh street.

Mr. Thomas E. English, a well-known native of Richmond, is with the Wilbur Opera Company, and has been warmly welcomed by many friends.

The funeral of Mr. Frank Middleton, who died suddenly in Nashville, Tenn., took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from St. Mark's church.

Many Richmond people will attend the Petersburg Kirmis the first week in November. It will be a brilliant affair, and the proceeds will be used in building the Petersburg Music Hall.

The funeral of Councilman J. R. Kelly, whose death occurred Friday afternoon, will take place from his late residence at 3:30 o'clock to-day, and the City Council will attend the funeral in a body.

Mr. John P. Kemp, a stonecutter who resides on Ashland street, fell off a wagon loaded with hay yesterday morning at the corner of Ashland and Robertson streets, breaking his left arm and collar-bone.

Professor Jacob Reinhardt was created a Knight Templar in the Commandery of St. Andrew Friday night. Very Eminent James B. Blanks, of Petersburg, Grand Generalissimo of Virginia, officiating. The work was deeply impressive.

Mr. George J. Anderson and family will leave to-morrow for St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Anderson goes to engage in the real estate business, being associated with Messrs. McClung, McMurrant & Co., one of the leading firms of that city.

In view of the publication of Mr. S. M. Page's letter, it is not probable that there will be any investigation of the gambling matter by the Police Board. No one has as yet made any specific charge against any officer or member of the Police force.

Mrs. Elizabeth Winston, wife of Mr. N. Claiborne Winston, and a sister of the late Mrs. James M. Taylor, died Friday evening at the residence of Mr. Robert A. E. Dabney, on Clay street. Her funeral will take place from the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the Richmond City Mission to elect officers and reorganize for the winter's work will be held Monday, November 1st, at 4 o'clock P. M., in the Young Men's Christian Association-rooms, corner of Fourth and Franklin streets. All interested are earnestly requested to attend.

November 30th, St. Andrew's Day, will be celebrated by the Commandery of St. Andrew, No. 13, Knights Templar, by a reception and banquet at St. Albans Hall, to which ladies will be invited. Richmond Commandery, No. 2, will be specially requested to attend.

The funeral of Mr. C. H. Jones, the Confederate veteran who died of wounds received while firing the salute in honor of President Cleveland, took place at Hollywood yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. It was well attended by his comrades and a deputation from Lee Camp.

Yesterday was registration-day, and, though there were many who had failed to register during the general registration, the number of names put upon the books was only about the same as usual. This shows that many of our voters failed to attend to this matter, and have, through their own negligence, lost their right of suffrage.

Our city is to be especially congratulated upon the good order which prevailed during the last week, generally the most disorderly in the whole year. Owing to the efficiency of our police force, most of whom did double duty the whole week, there was no breach of the peace worse than disorderly conduct, except in one or two cases of petty larceny and one for resisting the police.

THE BLOOMING BICYCLE.

An Interesting Feature of the Late Fair.

The bicycle races of Friday excited an interest which should flatter the devotees of the sport. While they are a novelty here as yet, those who witnessed the close and exciting finish of the one and two mile event could get a faint idea of the speed that can be gotten out of the machine. Had those who entered had long enough notice to train, the time made would have been considerably better; although, considering the condition of the track for bicycle races, the time made was excellent. It is to be hoped that the Fair Committee will construct a special quarter-mile track for bicycles only, and they can depend on a larger amount of good entries; besides it is more interesting that the contestants should pass the grand stand as often as possible. Considering the short notice given, and the successful manner in which the race was conducted, some credit must reflect on Mr. A. K. Schaap. The Norfolk, Harrisonburg, and Staunton boys were much pleased, and expressed themselves as entirely satisfied with their reception. Let us hope that these pleasant reunions and races will be had at every Fair. Richmond can feel proud of Mr. Frank Lyon for taking the two principal events, as Norfolk had an excellent showing in that genial little gentleman, Mr. A. A. O'Neil. Dr. F. L. Harris, the chief consul, returned home this morning.

THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

The Commandery of St. Andrew.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Commandery of St. Andrew, No. 13, Knights Templar, held at St. Albans Hall Friday night, the Grand Generalissimo of the State, James B. Blanks, of Petersburg, was officially received. The distinguished Templar made an inspection of the Commandery, and it was found that the roster numbered eighty-seven Knights, seventy-five of whom were uniformed. Among the other visitors were Right Eminent T. S. Parvin, the father of Masonry in Iowa, and the Past Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment of the United States; Eminent Sir Knight Stillman White, of St. Johns, Providence; Sir Knight William L. Walker, of St. Johns, and Sir Knight Emery, of Demolay, Boston. Pleasant speeches were made at the supper table by the visitors and by Sir Knight Courtney, of No. 2, and Eminent Sir Knight Thomas J. Evans, of No. 13.

The Grand Generalissimo will visit Richmond Commandery, No. 2, next Tuesday night. He will be accompanied by several Sir Knights of Appomattox Commandery, No. 6.

WELCOME VISITORS.

Typos Come On to Register.

Among those who came on to register yesterday were Messrs. E. C. Crump, G. A. Lyon, and Thomas Elam. All of these gentlemen are well-known Richmond men, at present residing in Washington and members of the Democratic Association of that city. In this connection mention is made of a recent gift by Mr. Gus Lyon to the Soldiers' Home of a number of handsome volumes. The volumes have been received and accepted, and the donor is the recipient of a beautiful letter of thanks from General William R. Terry on behalf of the veterans.

THE AMERICAN MECHANICS.

Officers Elected at the Late Session.

The recent session of the Grand Lodge of Junior Order of American Mechanics was an important and interesting one. The order is making rapid progress, and is one of our best benevolent societies.

The following officers were elected: Past State Councillor, Walter E. Orange, of No. 1, Richmond; State Councillor, T. B. Ivey, of No. 3, Petersburg; State Vice-Councillor, A. W. Shunk, No. 2, of Washington; State Secretary, Philip Meisel, Jr., No. 1, of Richmond.

OUR RAILROADS.

What They are Assessed At.

The report of Mr. C. Lee Moore, secretary of the Board of Public Works, has just been printed. According to his report, the assessed value of the rolling stock, including passenger, freight, cattle, stock, baggage, mail, express, sleeping, palace, parlor, and all other cars, boats, machinery, &c., of all the railroads in the State, is $4,044,995.16. The total tax is $141,755.15. The value of the telegraph lines is placed at $8,708.40, and the total value of the roadway and tracks in the different counties of the Commonwealth is $27,949,020.

SPECIAL RATES.

Fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society.

The annual Fair of North Carolina will be held at Raleigh, N. C., on the 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th instants, and no doubt will be largely attended, not only by the people of North Carolina, but from the adjoining States. In order to induce our citizens and the people to attend, the Richmond and Petersburg railroad have on sale reduced excursion tickets, including admission to the Fair. Round-trip to Raleigh, N. C., from Richmond, Va., only $8.10. No half-fare tickets will be sold.

Miss Cora Davis, of Nottoway county, is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Goode, 815 West Franklin street.

Miss A. E. Thomas, of Australia, Miss, is visiting friends in Richmond.

CLUVERIUS.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY TO BE INVOKED.

The Petition to be Brief and to be Presented in a Short Time.

The petition to be presented to the Governor in behalf of Thomas J. Cluverius, who is under sentence of death for the murder of Fannie Lillian Madison, has not yet been prepared, but Mr. Beverley Crump, of counsel for Cluverius, said yesterday that it would be ready about the middle of next week.

Mr. Crump was asked if the prayer of the petitioners would be lengthy, and he replied, "No, it will be very short."

There will be several copies of the petition, and they will be given to Mr. Willie Cluverius, who will look after the getting of signatures. He will go around with one and the others will be turned over to his most intimate friends, who will assist in the work of securing signatures.

It is not believed that the condemned man will make any statement prior to the presentation of his petition to the Governor to establish his innocence, and such being the case, it is not believed that Governor Lee will interfere with the mandates of the courts.

POLICE COURT.

Proceedings at this Tribunal.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday, Justice D. C. Richardson presiding:

Charles Werner and Henry Moller, fighting on the Fair Grounds, were discharged, the offense having been committed outside the city limits.

Patrick (not Patsy) Boliver was jailed for five days for being drunk.

W. J. Faudree, disorderly in the street, was fined $2.50 and costs.

John Raffo was fined $5 for fighting and creating a disturbance in the bar-room of Charles Herbst.

Frank Kain, assaulting and striking James Tyrer. Fined $2.50 and costs.

Lee King (colored), charged with stealing one lot of cheese and a roll of leather, the property of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company. The case was continued till November 30th in consequence of the absence of witnesses.

Henry Jones (colored), charged with entering in the night-time the house of Robert Russell and stealing one trunk and two gold buttons. The case was continued till next Thursday. Jones is also charged with being a fugitive from justice from North Carolina.

Robert Shenault and M. Martin, hucksters in the First Market, were fined $1 each for obstructing the walkway in the market.

FREDERICKSBURG DEPOT LOT.

Another Big Property Sale.

Mr. A. J. Ford, trustee, has purchased the vacant lot on the northwest corner of Broad and Eighth streets, and well known as the Fredericksburg depot lot. There is 1334 feet front in the lot, and it sold for $225 per foot, the price paid being $30,037.50. While Mr. Ford's plans are not at present perfected, it may be safe to say that an up-town hotel is not among the least possible of Richmond's realities and not dreams in the near future. This lot is one of the most eligible in the city, and it is a matter of congratulation that it has fallen into the hands of a live, public-spirited and enterprising man.

AN ACCOMMODATION.

Through Cars to Lynchburg by R. and P. Railroad.

In order to accommodate its patrons the Richmond and Petersburg railroad will have through cars on the train leaving here at 11:30 A. M. for Lynchburg and the Southwest, arriving at Lynchburg at 5:35 P. M. This gives a longer time in Richmond and quick train for Lynchburg and beyond.

The trains for Norfolk, Va., over the Richmond and Petersburg railroad leave at 11:30 A. M. and 6:30 P. M., and arrive in Richmond at 1:30 P. M. and 9:20 P. M.

THE LIQUOR DEALERS.

Return of Richmond's Representative.

Mr. N. J. Smith, president of the Richmond Liquor-Dealers' Protective Association, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Chicago. Mr. Smith visited that city as a delegate from Richmond to the National Liquor-Dealers' Convention. He reports a harmonious, interesting and important session. Mr. Smith was chosen as the representative of Virginia on the National Executive Committee.

A Handsome Present.

Comrade Melville C. Grant, of John Andrew's Post, No. 15, G. A. R., of Boston, which visited our city a few weeks ago, has presented to Lee Camp, through Quartermaster Geo. C. Mountcastle, a beautiful collection of steel plate etchings, illustrative of scenes in the late war. The title of the series is "Life Studies of the Great Army," and is the work of the well-known artist, Edwin Forbes. Mr. Grant accompanies his gift with a pleasant letter, in which he wishes to be remembered kindly to "all the boys." These pictures will be presented by Lee Camp to the Soldiers' Home.

Miss Gertie Nelms, a charming Petersburg debutante, is here on a visit, and will remain several weeks.

The Color-Line in the Grand Army in Maine.

AUGUSTA, ME., October 22.—While Mr. Blaine is calling upon Pennsylvania Republicans to cheer General-Master Workman Powderly for the position he has taken on the color question in the South, the Grand Army Post here in Mr. Blaine's home is engaged in black-balling a colored ex-soldier who applied for admission into the order of veterans. Peterson, a colored ex-Union soldier, was black-balled largely by the Grand Army of the Republic. The Knights of Labor here have colored members among their brotherhood. There is no disposition to discriminate against them in the labor order, but the Grand Army has certainly established a precedent in Augusta.

The Big Intrigue.

But the main consideration urged in favor of joint action by Turkey and Russia in the Bulgarian business would be the Czar's promise to co-operate with France in demanding the evacuation of Egypt by England, and the restoration of that coveted country to the Porte. The Egyptian revenues, unquestionably, were they once freed by repudiation from the burden of the interest now payable to European bondholders, would offer a rich field to the speculations of the pashas. For Abdul Hamed, also, who seems to be a fervent believer, and in his way a patriot, the prospect of regaining Cairo would have irresistible temptations.—N. Y. Sun.

New York's Triangular Fight for Mayor.

At present the prospect of Mr. Hewitt's election is excellent. Mr. Roosevelt will probably come in at the tail of the pole and the Blaine people, seeing this, will do all they can to help Mr. George. Their "little game" is to divide and defeat the Democrats at all hazards. They care nothing for the city; they look two years ahead, and they calculate rightly that if on the 2d of November this year they can defeat the Democrats in this city, their success two years hence will be made easy.

The Democratic party in this city has, after many years, come together in support of a single ticket.

The Coming Slavery.

George said Thursday night, "We have an organization that is so well disciplined that upon a word from the leader it will pour out its numbers like a swarm of bees with my ballots in their hands. They dare not shrink their bounden duty, for if they do, ever afterward they will be tabooed from workmen's society. I am assured by my Executive Committee, from a strict canvass, that the majority of this organization will vote the workmen's ticket."

A Bad Omen for the New British Envoy.

LONDON, October 22.—The British despatch boat Imogene has been wrecked at Gallipoli, during a fog. She was at the time proceeding from Constantinople to Salonica, from where she was to convey Sir William White, the newly-appointed British Minister to Turkey, to Constantinople. The crew were saved. The Imogene is an iron yacht of 400 tons.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—For some time it has been noticed that the mind of Sheriff Wellwood Rowan was seriously affected, and to-day it was found necessary to escort him to his home and place him under surveillance. On a number of occasions within the past few months he has been reported to the police as missing and has been restored to his friends by their efforts. To one neighbor Sheriff Rowan unfolded a magnificent scheme by which all the railroads and cities in the country were to be purchased by him, and the friend placed in charge with a fabulous salary. At 6 o'clock to-night the Sheriff took a walk, and on his return at 7 o'clock attempted to eject officer Osterlitz and aids, who are stationed at the house in citizen's clothing. He was finally calmed and induced to retire.

Sheriff Rowan was in the Common Council for many years, and was elected sheriff last January. It is believed that he is suffering from softening of the brain, and that his case is hopeless.

DUBLIN, October 22.—The Government will reorganize the police of Belfast on the Dublin model, and substitute qualified justices for the present borough magistracy.

HEADQUARTERS OLD DOMINION DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF JEFFERSON WARD,
October 23, 1886.

THE OLD DOMINION DEMOCRATIC CLUB of Jefferson Ward will meet at Headquarters—Rooms No. 78, Eighteenth street—on Monday evening, October 25th, at 8 o'clock sharp. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance, as business of importance will come up.

By order of President JAMES W. GIBSON.
